

Info Sheet

Partners within the AoP project:

Regions:

- West Pomerania is a county located in Poland that serves as one of the three regional public authorities that will be preparing and piloting the program.
- Ministry for health, women and consumer – City of Bremen is a state located in Germany, that serves as one of the three regional public authorities that will be preparing and piloting the program.
- Norrbotten Region is a county located in Sweden, it serves as one of the three regional public authorities that will be preparing and piloting the program.

Municipalities:

- Saldus is a municipality located in Latvia, and it serves as one of the three local public authorities that will be preparing and piloting the program.
- Cēsis is a municipality located in Latvia. It serves as one of the three local public authorities that will be preparing and piloting the program.
- Odense is a municipality located in Denmark. It serves as one of the three local public authorities that will be preparing and piloting the program.

Higher Educational and research institution:

- The Danish National Institute of Public Health (University of Southern Denmark) is a public university located in Denmark. It will be one of the three universities participating in the program.
- Turku University of Applied Sciences is a university located in Finland. It will be one of the three universities participating in the program.
- Lithuanian University of Health Sciences is located in Lithuania. It will be one of the three universities participating in the program.

Educational/training centre and school:

- Bremer Volkshochschule is located in Germany. It serves in the field of culture and cultural education and cooperates with City of Bremen.
- Sunderby Folk High School is located in Sweden. It serves in the field of culture and cultural education and cooperates with Norrbotten Region.

International governmental organisation:

- Northern Dimension Partnership on Health and Social Well-being Secretariat (NDPHS) - The Northern Dimension Partnership on Health and Social Well-being Secretariat is an organization that promotes cooperation on health and social well-being issues among the countries of the Northern Dimension area.

NGO:

- Media Dizajn is an institution located in Poland. It serves in the field of culture and cultural education and cooperates with West Pomerania regional public authority.

Budget/Finance:

Total Programme co-financing	2,809,028.43 EUR
Total own contribution	702,257.13 EUR
Total budget	3,511,285.56 EUR

Time Schedule:

