Travel information

From Arlanda Airport to Stockholm City

Travelling from Arlanda Airport, your choices of transportation to the Stockholm Central Railway Station are as follows:

- Arlanda Express (high-speed train) to Stockholm Central Railway Station takes 18 minutes and costs one-way 349 SEK, return 598 SEK. Follow the yellow Arlanda Express signs in the airport to navigate to the train station. Digital tickets are recommended – however, vending machines for printed options are available nearby the train station.

- Flygbussarna (Airport coaches) to Stockholm Central Railway Station. The trip takes about 45 minutes and costs one-way 129 SEK. Digital tickets are recommended – however, vending machines for printed options are available at the bus stop.

- SL commuter train line 40 takes you from Arlanda Airport to Odenplan, Stockholm Central Railway Station, or Stockholm Södra (closest to NDPHS office) in 35-40 minutes. Single journey SL ticket including Arlanda passage supplement fee is 190 SEK. It is recommended to purchase tickets via SL app.

- You can also take a taxi.

To the meeting venue

The meeting venue is located within a 2 min walk away from the closest metro station Mariatorget, where the red lines 13 Ropsten/Norsborg and 14 Mörby Centrum/Fruängen stop. You can purchase tickets through the SL app or by tapping your payment card by the entrance of the metro or bus. A single ticket costs 43 SEK and is valid for 75 minutes

Discover Stockholm – Nobel Week Lights

During your stay in Stockholm, you will also have the opportunity to experience Nobel Week Lights, a free outdoor light art festival taking place as part of the Nobel Week celebrations.

From 5–13 December 2026, Stockholm's streets, squares and buildings will be illuminated by artworks inspired by Nobel Prize-winning discoveries, literature and peace efforts. All installations are open daily from 16:00 to 22:00, making it a great opportunity to discover Stockholm after the meeting.
